Troparion Tone 1

O Lord save thy people
and bless thine inheritance.
Grant Victories to the Orthodox Christians
over their adversaries;
And by virtue of thy cross, preserve thy habitation.

Kontakion Tone 7

Now the flaming sword no longer guards the gates of Eden; it has mysteriously been quenched by the wood of the Cross! The sting of death and the victory of hell have been vanquished; for thou, O my Savior, have come and cried to those in hell: Enter again into paradise.

Today's Bible Verse

Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

-Mark 8: 34

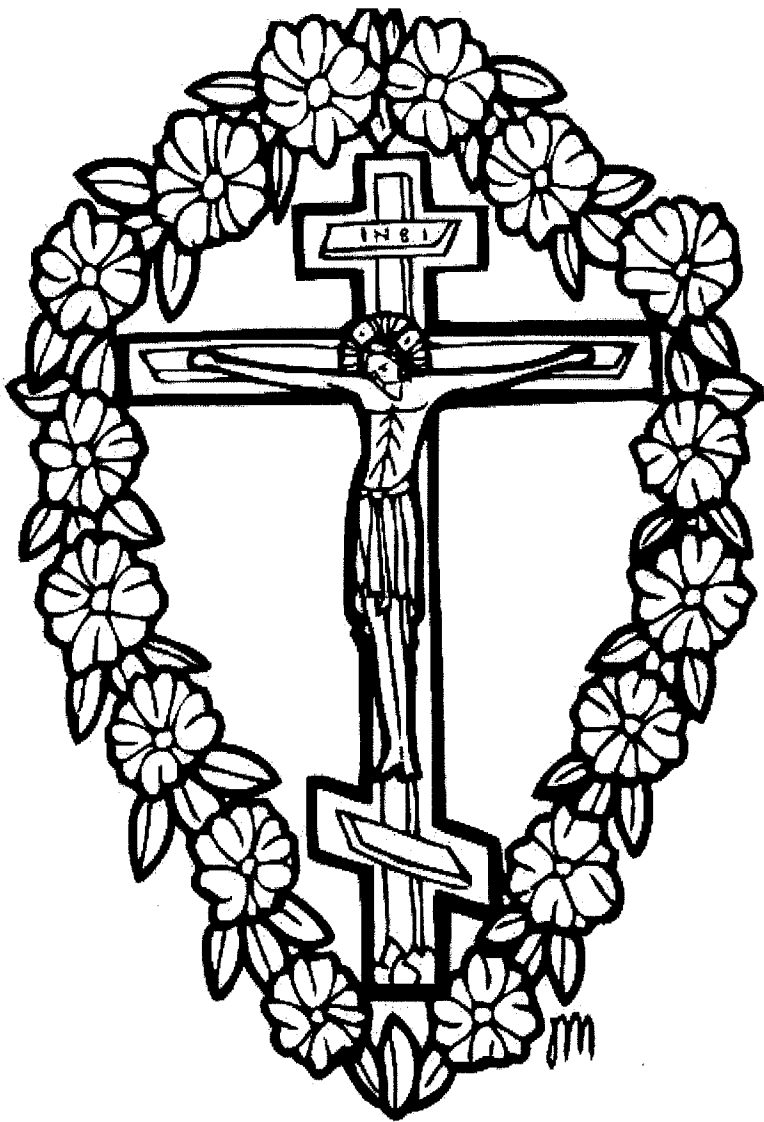

The Holy and Life-Creating Cross

The Sunday of the cross is remembered during Great Lent to remind us what lent is preparing us for: The Cross and death of Christ, and his Holy Resurrection! On this day, the cross is brought to the middle of the church. Orthodox Christians prostrate before it, singing: Before Thy Cross, we bow down in worship, O Master, and Thy holy Resurrection we glorify.

The cross lets us remember that as hard as everything seems, God is so powerful that it is worth it in the end.

Before Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection, the cross was used to punish criminals and was seen as an awful thing. However, by dying on the cross for us and for our salvation, Christ has made the cross a symbol of the Holy Orthodox Church and has turned it into a guardian of Christians against demons.

We, the Orthodox, wear crosses around our necks in order to protect us. Rejoice in the All-holy, venerable and life-bearing Cross! Remember that Our God is in heaven and on Earth, and he does whatever he pleases!
