The Vespers of Great and Holy Friday

The service books indicate that Vespers should begin in late afternoon. Before the service begins, the Shroud is placed on the altar. Vested in ephitrachelion, the priest begins:

Priest: Blessed is our God, always, now and ever and unto ages of ages.
Reader: Amen. Come, let us worship God our King.

   Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ our King and our God.
   Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

As Psalm 104 is chanted, the priest stands in front of the holy doors, and quietly reads the Prayers of Light.

Psalm 104

Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, Thou art very great. Thou art clothed with honor and majesty, Who coverest Thyself with light as with a garment; Who hast stretched out the heavens like a tent.

Who hast laid the beams of Thy chambers on the waters, Who makest the clouds Thy chariot, Who ridest on the wings of the wind. Who makest Thy angels spirits, and Thy ministers a fiery flame.

Thou didst set the earth on its foundations so that it should never be shaken. Thou didst cover it with the deep as with a garment. The waters stood above the mountains.

At Thy rebuke they fled, at the sound of Thy thunder they took to flight. The mountains rose, the valleys sank down to the place which Thou didst appoint for them.

Thou didst set a bound which they should not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth. Thou makest springs gush forth in the valleys, they flow between the hills.

They give drink to every beast of the field; the wild asses quench their thirst. By them the birds of the air have their habitation; they sing among the branches.

From Thy lofty abode Thou waterest the mountains; the earth is satisfied with the fruit of Thy work. Thou dost cause the grass to grow for the cattle, fodder for the animals that serve man.
That he may bring forth food from the earth, and wine to gladden the heart of man, oil to make his face shine, and bread to strengthen man’s heart.

The trees of the Lord are watered abundantly, the cedars of Lebanon which He planted. In them the birds build their nests; the stork has her home in the fir trees.

The high mountains are for the wild goats; the rocks are a refuge for the badgers. Thou hast made the moon to mark the seasons. The sun knows its time for setting.

Thou makest darkness, and it is night, when all the beasts of the forest creep forth. The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God.

When the sun rises, they get them away, and lie down in their dens. Man goes forth to his work and to his labor until the evening.

O Lord, how manifold are Thy works! In wisdom hast Thou made them all! The earth is full of Thy creatures. Yonder is the sea, great and wide, which teems with things innumerable, living things both small and great.

There go the ships, and the Leviathan which Thou didst form to sport in it. These all look to Thee, to give them their food in due season.

When Thou givest it to them, they gather it up; when Thou openest Thy hand, they are filled with good things. When Thou hidest Thy face, they are dismayed; when Thou takest away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

When Thou sendest forth Thy Spirit, they are created and Thou renewest the face of the earth! May the glory of the Lord endure forever! May the Lord rejoice in His works.

Who looks on the earth and it trembles! Who touches the mountains and they smoke! I will sing praises to my God while I have being!

May my meditation be pleasing to Him for I rejoice in the Lord. Let sinners be consumed from the earth and let the wicked be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul!

The sun knows its time for setting. Thou makest darkness and it is night. O Lord, how manifold are Thy works. In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God. (3)

Then immediately we sing “Lord, I Call” in Tone 1.

Lord, I Call Upon Thee

Obikhod Tone 1

Optional quartet parts for the psalm verses located in the Appendix, pp. 51-53.
Set a guard over my mouth, O Lord, keep watch over the door of my lips!
Incline not my heart to any evil, to busy myself with wicked deed in company with men who work iniquity, and let me not eat of their dainties!
Let a good man strike or rebuke me in kindness, but let the oil of the wicked never anoint my head; for my prayer is continually against their wicked deeds.
When they are given over to those who shall condemn them, then they shall learn that the Word of the Lord is true.
As a rock which one cleaves and shatters on the land, so shall their bones be strewn at the mouth of Sheol,
But my eyes are toward Thee, O Lord God; in Thee I seek refuge; let me not be defenseless! Keep me from the trap which they have laid for me, and from the snares of evil doers!
Let the wicked together fall into their own nets, while I escape.

Psalm 141
I cry with my voice to the Lord, with my voice I make supplication to the Lord. I pour out my complaint before Him, I tell my trouble before Him.
When my spirit is faint, Thou knowest my way! In the path where I walk they have hidden a trap for me. I look to the right and watch, but there is none who takes notice of me. No refuge remains to me, no man cares for me.
I cry to Thee, O Lord; I say, Thou art my refuge, my portion in the land of the living. Give heed to my cry; for I am brought very low!
Deliver me from my persecutors; for they are too strong for me.
Bring my soul out of prison, that I may give thanks to Thy name.
The righteous await me, for Thou wilt deal bountifully with me.
Psalm 129

Out of the depths I cry to Thee, O Lord, Lord, hear my voice.
Let Thy ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.
If Thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? // But there is forgiveness with Thee. (quartet sings this line, if applicable)

All creation was changed by fear when it saw Thee hanging upon the cross, O Christ. The sun was darkened, and the foundations of the earth were shaken. All things suffered with the Creator of all.///

O Lord, Who didst willingly endure this for us, glory to Thee!
Reader: For Thy name’s sake I wait for Thee, O Lord; my soul has waited for Thy word; my soul has hoped on the Lord.

Choir: Repeat “All creation was changed…”

Reader: (In the Second Tone) From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch, let Israel hope on the Lord.

Tone 2:
Reader: For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is plenteous redemption and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

He Who loves mankind is lifted up upon the wood, that He might free those bound in hell, who cry,/// "O long-suffering Lord, glory to Thee!"

To-day the blame-less Virgin saw Thee suspended upon the cross, O "Word"
She mourned within Herself and was sorely pierced in Her heart. She groaned in agony from the depth of Her soul. Exhausted from tearing Her hair and cheeks and beating Her breast, She cried out lamenting, "Woe is Me, O My divine Child! Woe is Me, O Light of the "world"
Reader: Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him all peoples!

When She Who bore Thee without seed saw Thee suspended upon the world! Why hast Thou departed from Mine eyes, O Lamb of God?"

Then the bodiless hosts were seized with trembling and cried:/// "O Incomprehensible Lord, glory to Thee!"

Reader: Praise the Lord, all nations! Praise Him all peoples!
Reader: (In the Sixth Tone) For His mercy is confirmed on us, and the truth of the Lord endures forever.

Choir: Tree, O Christ, the Creator and God of all, She cried bitterly, "Where is the beauty of Thy form, O My Son? I cannot bear to see Thee unjustly crucified. Hasten and arise/// that I too may see Thy resurrection from the dead on the third day!"
To-day the Master of creation stands before Pilate. Today the Creator of all is condemned to die on the cross. Of His own will, He is led as a lamb to the slaughter. He Who fed His people with manna in the desert is transfixed with nails. His side is pierced, and a sponge of vinegar touches His lips. The Redeemer of the world is slapped on the face. The Maker of all is mocked by His own servants. How great is the Master's love for mankind! For those who crucified Him, He prayed to His Father saying, "Forgive them this sin, for they know not what they do."

Reader: (Glory in the same Tone)
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Choir:
See how the lawless assembly condemns the King of creation to death.

They are not ashamed, even when He reminds them of His mighty works:

"My people, what have I done to you? Have I not filled Judea with miracles? Have I not raised the dead by My word alone? Have I not healed every sickness and disease? How have you repaid Me?"
Why have you abandoned Me? In return for healing, you give Me blows; in return for life, you put Me to death. You hang your Bene-factor on the cross as an evil-doer; your Lawgiver, as a transgres-sor;
the King of all, as one con-demned."
O long-suffer-ing Lord, glo-ry to Thee!

Reader: (Now and ever in the same Tone) Now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.
We see a strange and fearful mystery accomplished today. He whom none may touch is seized. He Who looses Adam from the curse is bound. He Who tries the hearts of men is unjustly brought to trial. He Who closed the abyss is shut in prison. He before Whom the hosts of heaven stand with trembling stands before Pilate. The Creator is struck by the hand of His creature. He Who comes to judge the living and the dead is condemned to the cross. The Conqueror of hell is enclosed in a tomb. O Thou, Who hast endured all these things in Thy tender love, Thou hast saved all men from the curse./// O long-suffering Lord, glory to Thee!

Then the Entrance is made with the Book of the Gospels. After “Wisdom! Let us attend!” O Gladsome Light (#4) is sung.
O Gladsome Light of the holy Glory of the immortal Father, heavenly, holy, blessed—Jesus Christ! Now that we have come to the setting of the sun and behold the light of evening, we praise God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit— for meet it is at all times to worship Thee with voices of praise, O Son of God and Giver of Life. Therefore all the world doth glorify Thee!
The priest goes to the high place and blesses the people:

Priest: Let us attend! Peace be unto all! Wisdom!

Reader: The Prokeimenon in the Fourth Tone: They divide My garments among them, / and for My raiment they cast lots. (Psalm 22)

VERSE: My God, my God, look upon me! Why hast Thou forsaken me?

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the book of Exodus (Exodus 33:11-23).

The readings are read from the Tomb.

Priest: Let us attend.

Reader: And the Lord spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle. And Moses said unto the Lord, “See, Thou sayest unto me, ‘Bring up this people:’ and Thou hast not let me know whom Thou wilt send with me. Yet Thou hast said, ‘I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in My sight.’ Now therefore, I pray Thee, if I have found grace in Thy sight, show me now Thy way, that I may know Thee, that I may find grace in Thy sight: and consider that this nation is Thy people.” And He said, “My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.” And he said unto Him, “If Thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence. For wherein shall it be known here that I and Thy people have found grace in Thy sight? Is it not in that Thou goest with us? So shall we be separated, I and Thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.” And the Lord said unto Moses, “I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in My sight, and I know thee by name.” And he said, “I beseech Thee, show me Thy glory.” And He said, “I will make all My goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the Lord before thee; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.” And He said, “Thou canst not see My face: for there shall no man see Me, and live.” /// And the Lord said, “Behold, there is a place by Me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock; and it shall come to pass, while My glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with My hand while I pass by; and I will take away Mine hand, and thou shalt see My back parts: but My face shall not be seen.”

The next Prokeimenon and Reading begin on the following page.
Priest: Wisdom!
The holy doors are opened for the Prokeimenon.
Reader: The Prokeimenon in the Fourth Tone: Judge, O Lord, those who wrong me; / fight against those who fight against me. (Psalm 35)

VERSE: They rewarded me evil for good; my soul is forlorn.

Priest: Wisdom!
Reader: The reading from the book of Job (Job 42:12-17).
Priest: Let us attend.

Reader: So the Lord blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-asses. He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Kerenhappuch. And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren. After this lived Job a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. /// So Job died, being old and full of days, and it is written that he will rise again with those whom the Lord will raise.
The third reading begins on the following page.
Priest: Wisdom!
Reader: The reading from the Prophecy of Isaiah (Isaiah 52:13 – 54:1).
Priest: Let us attend.

Reader: Thus saith the Lord: Behold, My servant shall deal prudently, He shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high. As many were astonished at Thee; His visage was so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men: So shall He sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at Him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider. Who hath believed our report? And to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? For He shall grow up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: He hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see Him, there is no beauty that we should desire Him. He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from Him; He was despised, and we esteemed Him not. Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and He was afflicted, yet He opened not His mouth: He is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so He openeth not His mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare His generation? For He was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was He stricken. And He made His grave with the wicked, and with the rich in His death; because He had done no violence, neither was any deceit in His mouth. Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise Him; He hath put Him to grief: when Thou shalt make His soul an offering for sin, He shall see His seed, He shall prolong His days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in His hand. He shall see of the travail of His soul, and shall be satisfied: by His knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for He shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I divide Him a portion with the great, and He shall divide the spoil with the strong; because He hath poured out His soul unto death: and He was numbered with the transgressors; and He bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. /// Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord.

The holy doors are now opened for the Prokeimenon and Epistle Reading.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The Prokeimenon in the Sixth Tone: They have laid me in the depths of the pit, // in the regions dark and deep. (Psalm 88)

VERSE: O Lord God of my salvation, I call for help by day; I cry out in the night before Thee.

Priest: Wisdom!

Reader: The reading from the first Epistle of the holy apostle Paul to the Corinthians (I Corinthians 1:18 – 2:2).

Priest: Let us attend.

Reader: Brethren: the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.” Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom: But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks foolishness; But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That no flesh should glory in His presence. But of Him are ye in Christ Jesus, Who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: That, according as it is written, “He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.” And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.///
For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified.

Priest: Peace be to thee, reader!
Reader: And to thy spirit: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia! Save me, O God, for the waters have come up to my neck.
During the singing of the Alleluia (Bridegroom Melody), the priest makes the customary censing.

VERSE: They gave me gall for food, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
VERSE: Let their eyes be darkened, so that they cannot see.
The priest proclaims the Gospel from the Tomb, facing the people in the usual way.
Priest: That we may be accounted worthy to hear the Holy Gospel, let us pray to the Lord God!

Priest: Wisdom! Let us attend! Let us listen to the Holy Gospel! Peace be unto all!

Protect them at all times, especially in this present evening and in the coming night, from every enemy, from every adverse work of the devil, from vain thoughts, and from evil imaginations. Blessed and most glorified be the majesty of Thy Kingdom: of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

As the Aposticha verses are sung (in Tone 2), the priest puts on all his vestments.
Tone 2:

Joseph of Arimathea took Thee down from the tree, the Life of all, cold in death. Bathing Thee with sweet and costly myrrh, he gently covered Thee with finest linen and with sorrow and tender love in his heart, he embraced Thy most pure body.

Reader: The Lord is King! He is robed in majesty!

Reader: (Glory, Now and Ever in the Fifth Tone) Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

The priest, now fully vested, opens the holy doors. As the following verse is sung, he goes around the altar three times, censing the Shroud, which lies on the Altar Table.
Joseph together with Nicodemus took Thee down from the tree, who clothest Thyself with light as with a garment. He gazed on Thy body—dead, naked and unburied—and in grief and tender compassion he lamented, "Woe is me, my sweetest Jesus! A short while a-go, the sun beheld Thee hanging on the cross and it hid itself in darkness. The earth quaked in fear at the sight. The veil of the temple was torn in two. Lo, now I see Thee willingly submit to death for our sake.

How shall I bury Thee, O my God? How can I wrap Thee in a shroud?

How can I touch Thy most pure body with my hands? What songs laity, take the Shroud, which they hold above his head. They go around the right and behind the altar, and out of the sanctuary through the north door. The Shroud is preceded with processional candles and incense. The procession goes to the center of the church where there stands a table decorated with flowers. Here the Shroud is placed, and on top of it, the Gospel book. The priest censes around it three times.
Reader: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal, have mercy on us! (3)
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.
O most-holy Trinity, have mercy on us. O Lord, cleanse us from our sins.
O Master, pardon our transgressions. O Holy One, visit and heal our infirmities, for Thy name’s sake.
Lord, have mercy. (3)
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.
Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

Priest: For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

Then the Dismissal.
Dismissal – After Arkhangelsky

Con-firm, O God, the Holy Orthodox Faith and Ortho-do-x Christ-ians, un-to a-ges of a-ges. More honorable than the cherubim and more glo-rious beyond compare than the ser-a-phim, with-out cor-rup-tion

Thou gav-est birth to God the Word. True The-o-to-kos, we mag-ni-fy Thee.

Priest: Glory to Thee, O Christ, our God and our hope, glory to Thee!
Priest: May He Who endured fearful suffering, the life-creating Cross, and voluntary burial in the flesh for us men and for our salvation, Christ our true God, through the prayers of His most pure Mother, of the holy, glorious, and all-laudable Apostles, of the holy and righteous ancestors of God, Joachim and Anna, and of all the saints, have mercy on us and save us, for He is good and loves mankind.

The people bow their heads as the priest pronounces the dismissal. After the dismissal, the Shroud is venerated by priest and people, each by making three prostrations: two before kissing the Shroud, and one after, as the choir sings the veneration hymn (on the following page).

Tone 5

O come, let us bless Joseph of eternal memory, / who came by night to Pilate / and begged the Life of all men: /
“Give me this Stranger, /
Who from His youth has wandered homeless. /
Give me this Stranger, /
rejected by His own people. /
Give me this Stranger, /
I marvel, seeing Him a guest of death. /
Give me this Stranger, /
the Refuge of the poor and weary. /
Give me this Stranger, /
Whom a crafty disciple betrayed to death. /
Give me this Stranger, /
that I may bury Him in my tomb, / for He has no place to lay His head. /
Give me this Stranger, /
Whose Mother, when She beheld Him hanging on the cross, / cried out in bitter grief, /
‘O Light of My eyes and beloved Fruit of My womb, / that which Simeon foretold in the temple is coming to pass this day: / a sword of sorrow has pierced My heart; / yet trusting in Thy resurrection I glorify Thee!”’ /
